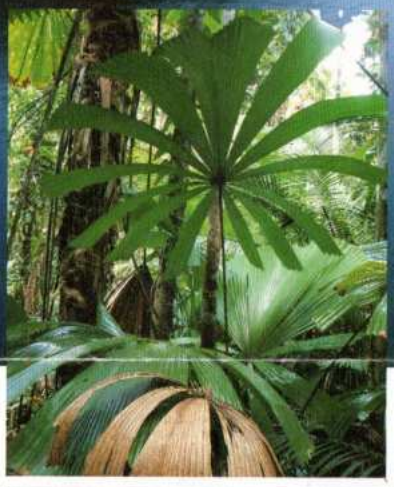
Australia's majestic landscapes...
...you can help to buy and save them
AUSTRALIAN BUSH HERITAGE FUND

Join Australian Bush Heritage Fund and help save our majestic landscapes and threatened wildlife



From the rocky coasts of the south through the country's arid heart to the lush tropical north, Australia is a country of spectacular natural beauty and diversity. The richness of its plant and animal life is unparalleled throughout much of the world.

Yet our record for looking after this wonderful country is poor. Only about nine per cent of the land is protected in reserves. We continue to clear native vegetation at unprecedented rates. Many species of animals and plants are struggling to survive. Our soils and rivers are becoming salty and lifeless.

But there are things we can do

You've probably heard about the organisation that is protecting our landscape, animals, birds and plants in the most practical way possible - by buying and caring for the land. Australian Bush Heritage Fund buys threatened land of the highest conservation value and cares for it for the long term to protect all its natural features, animals and plants. We need your help so that we can continue buying and protecting more areas of Australia that are threatened.

What do your donations achieve?

Over one year your gift of $20 each month will buy and protect about twenty hectares of outback Australia and its rare mammal habitats.

Over one year your gift of $30 each month will fund the cost of keeping pigs out of the fan palm forest reserve in the Daintree, so the endangered cassowaries can feed on the fallen fruit without competition.

Your single gift of $120 will fund weed removal from nearly 50 hectares of threatened native grassland at Carnarvon Station Reserve in central Queensland.

Your single gift of $360 will buy 450 seedlings to help revegetate cleared land on the Chereninup Creek Reserve in south-west Western Australia.

Acknowledging your contribution

If you join Bush Heritage as a regular donor and give $20 or more per month, or contribute a gift of $120 or more, we will send you a beautiful set of greeting cards featuring the reserves that you have helped to secure.

If you become a regular donor giving $30 or more per month, or contribute a gift of $360 or more, your name can be placed on the commemorative plaque at our latest reserve – a permanent reminder of your commitment to help protect the Australian landscape and its wildlife.

Please send your gift today. Your support is crucial.
